TEMPORARY WAGE SUBSIDY SCHEME

The Temporary Wage Subsidy Scheme introduced by Government, is continuing to have a growing uptake.

The scheme allows employers to pay their employees during the current pandemic. Employers will be refunded up to 70% of an employee's wages.

There are now 39,000 employers who are now registered with revenue for the scheme.

Since the 6th April 2020, Revenue has generated further refunds under the scheme with a value of €14 million. These payments will be in the bank accounts of most of the respective employers on the 7th April.

The amassed value of payments made under the scheme is almost €87 million.
